

Kill the Dog Comic Novel: The Hilarious and Heartwarming Journey of a Dog-Loathing College Student

If you've ever wondered what it would be like to live with someone who absolutely hates dogs, then you need to read Kill the Dog, the new comic novel by author Jane Doe. This laugh-out-loud funny and surprisingly poignant story follows the misadventures of Alex, a college student who has a serious aversion to dogs. But when his new roommate, Sarah, brings home a stray puppy, Alex's world is turned upside down.

At first, Alex is determined to get rid of the dog, but Sarah is just as determined to keep it. The two of them end up in a hilarious battle of wills, with Alex trying to find ways to get rid of the dog without Sarah finding out, and Sarah ng everything she can to protect her new furry friend. But as Alex spends more time with the dog, he starts to realize that it's not as bad as he thought. In fact, he starts to develop a grudging affection for the animal, and eventually, he comes to love it.
