A Legacy of Excellence

Moto Guzzi's racing heritage dates back to the early 20th century. In the 1950s, the company achieved remarkable success in the 500cc Grand Prix class with its legendary "Gambalunga" (Long Legs) racers. These machines featured a unique front fork design that allowed for exceptional cornering stability.

In 1957, Moto Guzzi introduced an even more groundbreaking machine: the V8 Grand Prix racer. This motorcycle was powered by a formidable 500cc V8 engine, making it one of the most powerful motorcycles ever built. The V8 Guzzi dominated the Grand Prix circuit for several seasons, setting numerous records and cementing Moto Guzzi's reputation as a leader in motorcycle racing.
