

Quatrains that Linger: Exploring the Enchanting Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam

An Enduring Legacy of Persian Wisdom

In the tapestry of world literature, 'The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam' stands as a radiant gem, its verses illuminating the corridors of human thought and experience for centuries. This collection of enigmatic quatrains, attributed to the 11th-century Persian mathematician, astronomer, and poet Omar Khayyam, has captivated readers across cultures and generations.

Originally written in Persian, the 'Rubaiyat' gained widespread recognition in the West through the masterful translation of Edward FitzGerald in 1859. FitzGerald's elegant and evocative rendition captured the essence of Khayyam's poetry, introducing it to an English-speaking audience and forever cementing its place in literary history.
